CLUES LEAD TO KENTUCKY

Most Mysterious Murder of Generation, Swann Asserts

NEW YORK—(By United Press)—Efforts to locate the murderer of Joseph Elwell were concentrated Wednesday in Lexington, Ky. Detectives left here Tuesday night under orders of District Attorney Edward Swann to investigate the promising clue authorities have obtained in what Swann termed the most mysterious murder of the generation.

Swann early Wednesday made the unqualified statement that the slayer of the wheat expert, gambler and turfman was the father or brother of a girl, member of a prominent family in Lexington, who was "seduced by Elwell."

VALET TELLS STORY
Elwell was at Lexington for several weeks this spring in the interests of his racing stable. He stayed for the derby, but was forced to leave Lexington earlier than he had intended fearing the wrath of the girl's father or brother, Swann said.

The girl's first name was Anna Swann said.

Also the authorities failed to explain how they came in possession of the "latest clue," it was reported to have been obtained from William Barnes, secretary and valet to Elwell.

Barnes was questioned for several hours last night by Swann and other officials.

"We have learned a great deal about Elwell from Barnes," the district attorney said. "He told us the murdered man was on terms of the utmost intimacy with at least 50 girls and women."

Barnes, according to the district attorney, told how Elwell often entertained women in his home.

Bedroom on the third floor was fitted with toilet waters, lip sticks, rouge, brow pencils and other articles for use of women.

Authorities Wednesday had still failed to explain incidents of the last hour of Elwell's life—from 3:30 a. m. when he returned, until he was slain at about 7:30.

PREPARED TO RETIRE
Barnes said Elwell always retired on reaching home. Yet, when his body was found, the bed had not been used that night. However, he must have intended to retire, Barnes said, because he had removed his false teeth and toupee. Knowing "the character of his employer," Barnes declared, he would never have laid his false teeth and toupee aside had anyone been in the house with him.

The theory on which police are working is that Elwell was just ready to retire when the door bell rang. He answered and a man entered who was admitted or forced his way into the home. Also there believed the two men argued until shortly after 7 a. m. when the mail was delivered. Elwell, they believe, went to the door again, obtained his mail and was gazing over one of the letters with the visitor sitting opposite him, when the shot was fired.

EXPERT MARKSMAN
The bullet ranged upward, leading detectives to believe that the murderer fired either from his lap or from his coat pocket. In this case, he was probably an expert marksman, as the bullet entered the center of Elwell's forehead.

In a statement published Wednesday, Miss Krauss, member of the party with which Elwell attended the theatre the night before his murder, declared Elwell's attitude toward her was not any more than that of a friend, and that as a suitor, he possessed no attraction for her whatsoever.

Miss Krauss told of the peculiar incident that happened at the dinner party at the Ritz, before they went to the theatre Thursday night.

The party was reported to have been in celebration of the successful termination of Miss Krauss' effort to obtain a divorce from Victor Von Schlegel. She denied this, however.

Besides Miss Krauss and Elwell, the party included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewisohn. As they sat down at the table, Von Schlegel, accompanied by another woman, entered the dining room and occupied a nearby table.

Following a dance, Von Schlegel and Elwell were close to each other on the floor. Von Schlegel said he spoke to Elwell and that Elwell replied pleasantly.

Lewisohn differed with this statement, by Von Schlegel. He said that Von Schlegel spoke to Elwell, but that the slain man ignored the greeting.

Von Schlegel told authorities he was unable to recall the name of the woman who accompanied him. He said after leaving the Ritz, he took her to a hotel. The next morning, she had breakfast with him at 8 a. m. in his apartment and then she departed for her home in Minneapolis, he said.

The woman was dressed in black, wearing a large black hat.

Von Schlegel is a graduate of the engineering department of the University of Minnesota.

Radical Parties Combining

Laborites and Committee of 48 In Agreement

CHICAGO — (By United Press.)—Platforms of liberal parties which will hold their national conventions here beginning July 10 and 11 are being worked out so they will fit together in case it is decided to amalgamate in support of one presidential ticket, it was learned here Wednesday.

Both the Labor Party and the Committee of 48 have practically decided on the presentation of duplicate labor planks to their convention.

These planks according to officials of both parties will differ only in their wording and will approve public ownership of natural resources, stock yards, grain elevators, telephone, telegraph, flour mills and all basic industries and participation of the workers in the management.

The league of nations issue has been left untouched by the platform. Opinion is divided, there being the same trouble among the liberals as was experienced by the Republicans at their convention and which it is predicted will crop out at the Democratic convention.

Liberal leaders do not expect it to cause a smash up.

The Committee of 48 has opened a campaign to popularize itself thru the circulation of pamphlets containing declarations of principles adopted at its conference in St. Louis last December. "Bust the trusts," was expected to be one of the popular slogans if both parties unite on one candidate. In the pamphlets the committee attacks the "steel, oil, beef, milling and coal trusts."

WAR DECLARED ON RATS TO CHECK BUBONIC PLAGUE IN FLORIDA

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Pensacola started a rat-killing drive Wednesday with a view to stopping the spread of what physicians have pronounced bubonic plague. Two deaths have occurred from the disease since late Friday. The rat exterminators will be paid by the city, an appropriation having been made for that purpose. The work is being directed by the United States Public Health Service.

SCRIPPS LEAGUE WILL BACK
GOV. COX FOR PRESIDENT

The Scripps league of newspapers, including 22 powerful non-partisan papers in many parts of the United States, has declared for the nomination of Governor James M. Cox for president on the democratic ticket. The announcement appeared yesterday in The Cleveland Press, the home paper of the league.

In its lead editorial this newspaper came out flat-footed for Governor Cox, declaring he is the hope of the democratic party and pledging support to him.

Following is the statement in The Press:

RESULTS of the Chicago convention, including platform and ticket, leave independent, progressive and boss-weary American voters with absolutely nothing to vote for—so far as the G. O. P. is concerned. And there is nary a squawk, at least of the encouraging order, along third party lines.

Under the circumstances the country turns its attention to the Democrats. Contrary to expectation what is done at San Francisco, commencing June 28, may be of vital importance to this nation's welfare.

The Republicans succumbed to a well-organized and well-financed Old Guard machine that wrote their platform and selected their candidate for them. And a considerable section of the people are not only sore about it, but perhaps permanently disaffected.

Will the Democrats do the same thing? Will they try beating the Republicans at their own game?

Word is that the skids are greased to slide Son-in-Law McAdoo into the nomination. This in spite of Bryan who is fostering plans and an organization of his own. If that is the case then the party of Thomas Jefferson is well pictured in the guise of an ear-flapping donkey.

In Democratic ranks there is only one man with a record and a reputation of and for honest and effective public service that entitles him to serious consideration. That man is Governor James M. Cox of Ohio.

In the hearts of all true Americans, no matter of what party, there is one hope. That is that at San Francisco will be written a platform that will be brave, that will bid defiance to the big financial interests and inject into the coming campaign at least an element of idealism.

This newspaper is for Cox for the Democratic nomination.

This newspaper will be for Cox for president if he is man enough, at the San Francisco convention, to insist on a platform clear, specific and enlightened on such issues as free speech, industrial relations, profiteers, the high cost of living, the railroads and American shipping, a federal budget system, and a system of national defense and preparedness American in spirit as well as in name.

TERMS TO TURKS THREE LYNCHED AS PRIEST PRAYS

Inter-Allied Control Commission Has Large Powers

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press.)—Limited internationalization of the port of Constantinople and its inclusion within the "zone of the straits," is provided for in the provisional terms of the Turkish treaty. This is disclosed by an official summary received here of the jurisdiction provided for the inter-allied commission of control.

Granted its own flag, budget and separate organization the commission by the lines of the boundaries fixed for the "zone of the straits" will have authority over a territory considerably greater than some of the smaller nations of Europe. Made almost sovereign in itself the commission is to be practically independent of the league of nations as stipulation is expressly made that should it find liberty of passage of the straits interfered with it shall take such measures as may be deemed necessary to maintain the freedom of the straits.

The zone includes not only the Bosphorus, Sea of Marmora and Dardanelles but also three miles off shore from the mouth of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus and the Aegean Islands of Samotrace, Imbros, Lemnos, Tenedos and Lesbos.

A land zone also is provided extending from ten to 17 miles north-west of the Sea of Marmora and 8-20 miles southeast of it.

Compers Fights Labor Party

Max Hayes, of Ohio, Fights For Separate Movement

MONTREAL — (By United Press.)—President Samuel Compers and his supporters in the American Federation of Labor here Wednesday stood ready to defeat any attempt to endorse the labor party.

Compers has fought the labor party movement since its inception on the ground that it tends to render organized labor impotent.

Organizing the strength of the Gompers element, John Fitzpatrick, of Chicago, head of the labor political party Wednesday, was jockeying to prevent the question becoming an issue in this convention.

Assisting Fitzpatrick was Max Hayes, typographical delegate, from Cleveland, and secretary of the labor party.

For the American Federation of Labor convention to formally condemn the labor party movement, would influence the support of most of the rank and file of labor throughout the United States, it is believed.

The labor party leaders, therefore, hope to evade the issue in this connection. Neither Fitzpatrick nor Hayes introduced any resolutions connected with the question lest the movement be discussed on the convention floor.

The Gompers element has given no indication of intending to force the issue, unless it should be raised by Fitzpatrick.

QUITS RACE FOR SENATE

WASHINGTON — Senator Warren G. Harding Wednesday formally withdrew from the Ohio senatorial race.

Harding wrote Harvey Smith, secretary of state of Ohio, asking withdrawal of the petition filing for primaries.

Negroes Hanged by Minnesota Mob for Attack on Girl—Police Overpowered in Fight With Crowd of 5,000—Soldiers Mobilized

DULUTH, Minn. — (By United Press.)—Two companies of State guards here Wednesday, were expected to prevent further troubles following a night in which a mob of 5,000 lynched three negroes in connection with an attack on a 17-year-old white girl.

The mob stormed the city jail, capturing six negroes held for the offense. Three of the accused were found "not guilty" at a mock trial before the lynchings. Not a shot was fired in the mob demonstration.

Four negroes held in Virginia in connection with the attack on the white girl were believed safe. Reports here, however, said part of the lynchers started in automobiles early Wednesday for Virginia.

The negroes hanged here were Isaac McGhie, Elmer Jackson and N. E. Green.

ROPE BREAKS TWICE
They were circus roughabouts. All were about 22 years old. They were hanged at intervals of eight minutes.

The attack on the girl took place at the circus grounds here.

McGhie was the first victim. A noose was placed around his neck at 11:30 Tuesday night. He declared his innocence and pleaded for mercy.

Two Catholic priests begged the crowd to let the law take its course. Father F. J. Howard climbed 17 feet on a telegraph pole and under the dim light of an arc light, prayed for the crowd to release the negroes.

He was hoisted by the crowd.

McGhie was jerked into the air three times. The rope broke on the first two attempts. He begged for mercy until an impassioned speech was cut short by his third ascent.

Jackson was the next victim, followed by Green. Both declared they were not guilty of the attack.

BATTLE WITH POLICE
Attacking the police station, the mob hurled bricks and sticks. City authorities were unable to cope with the rioters. Eight patrolmen received minor injuries. In defending the six negro prisoners, the mob first attacked the rear entrance. While part of the lynchers fought police in the rear, a detachment attacked the front entrance. Both sides used streams of water in the battle. Not members managed to cut the water supply of the defenders and then secured possession of the jail. Cell doors were battered down with umbrellas.

The "trial" was held on the second floor of the police station. Those found guilty were taken two blocks from the station to the scene of their death while the others were returned to police officers.

CHICAGO BANKS REFUSE TO LOAN $15,000,000 FOR CITY IMPROVEMENTS

CHICAGO — James B. Forgan, chairman of the Chicago Clearing House, notified the city that a request for a $15,000,000 loan had been refused by Chicago banks and that no more money would be loaned to the city at this time.

Refusal of the city to adopt a suggestion by the bankers that improvement projects be curtailed until a more opportune time for financing them is responsible for the bankers' action, Mr. Forgan said. Chicago faces bankruptcy before the end of the year, he added.

WOMAN SLAIN
IN AUTO

Army Officer's Mate is Shot to Death at Her Husband's Side as the Couple Rides, Near Camp Grant, With Automobile Party

Being Surrounded by Deep Mystery—Report of Gun First Believed Motor Misfire—Five Soldiers Are Sought by Authorities

ROCKFORD, Ill.—(By Associated Press.)—Five soldiers of Camp Grant, near here, were sought Wednesday in connection with the shooting to death early Wednesday of Mrs. Maude Lucille Moss, wife of Captain Leroy H. Moss, camp utilities officer, and daughter of Colonel Bion J. Arnold, pioneer electrical engineer.

It was reported early Wednesday some of the men were believed surrounded. The entire camp military intelligence force was seeking to establish whether Mrs. Moss was murdered or accidentally killed.

That Mrs. Moss had been shot was not known until the automobile in which she was riding with her husband and four friends had gone a half mile.

THOUGHT MOTOR MISFIRE
The party just had passed the small group of soldiers, it was said, when a sharp report was heard. The motor party later recalled that they had thought it was a misfire of the motor. Striking a bump in the road Mrs. Moss, who had been asleep on the rear seat wedged between Mr. and Mrs. William V. McCreight, slumped forward. Mr. and Mrs. McCreight, believing Mrs. Moss still was asleep when she failed to recover her position, put out their arms to aid her, and it was found only then that she had been wounded.

DIES AT HOSPITAL
Captain Moss, who was driving, rushed to the camp base hospital but Mrs. Moss died a short time after reaching there, just before Colonel Arnold arrived.

Camp officers immediately caused a full call of every unit and a search was begun. The men unaccounted for.

Captain Moss said he believed the shooting was accidental.

In November, 1904, Mrs. Moss was lost for 24 hours on Pike's Peak and with her brother and a friend, was rescued from freezing only after a frantic search.

AMERICANISM TO BE BOOSTED
Monster Lima Demonstration Planned for Friday Night

Final plans for the monster "Americanism" demonstration at Memorial Hall Friday night were completed by the committee on arrangements Tuesday night.

Secretary Irving B. Lincoln of the chamber of commerce, announced that posters for the event in the street cars and shops are being distributed Wednesday to assure ample publicity.

An attempt is being made to secure the Elk's band to lead a parade which will accompany Dr. John Wesley Hill to Memorial Hall when he arrives Friday. Members of the committees from the shops will march in the parade and will carry banners from the industrial organization they represent.

The hall is to be divided into sections, according to plans of the committee on arrangements, and each section will be occupied by workers in the shop. They will also carry banners bearing the name of their shop and expressions of 100 percent Americanism.

Dr. Hill is well known to members of the Kiwanis Club, to whom he spoke a few weeks ago and is recommended as one of the most eloquent speakers in the country. His address, "Americanism" which will be delivered at Memorial Hall Friday is said to be a most stirring appeal for 100 percent Americanism, the truths of which should reach every foreign born resident of the country.

MAN MANGLED BY ERIE TRAINS

Ground to Pieces Near West-minister Station

BELIEVED TO BE A. B. FERRIS

St. Marys Officers May Establish Identity of Victim

The body of an unidentified man, believed to be A. B. Ferris, Ardmore, Okla., was found along the tracks of the Erie railroad, one and one-half miles east of the Westminster station early Wednesday morning.

The body had been ground into small pieces by passing night trains. Not a piece as large as a foot square was left of the man's body. Recognition was almost impossible.

A card found in the vest pocket stated that the bearer was A. B. Ferris, Ardmore, Okla. The same card stated that in case of accident notification should be made to Mrs. A. B. Ferris, St. Marys, Ohio.

The Erie railroad ambulance was ordered to the scene by Corporal A. C. Adams and brought the remains to this city. In conversation with chief of police of St. Marys, Undertaker Eckert was notified that Ferris was missing and that they had been on the hunt for him all day. A St. Marys undertaker will convey the remains to that place.

The body was discovered by the section crew, of which John Hyre is foreman, lying on the eastbound tracks when they went to work. An overhead is near where the body was found.

Ralph Consino, who lives near the overhead, declared that he saw a man walking near the tracks, Tuesday night. He said he would travel a short distance, then he fell down. Then he would assume his journey again. He was unable to identify the clothes as those of the man he saw on the tracks, Tuesday night.

An unused railroad ticket from St. Marys to Wapakoneta was found in his vest pocket.

Several leaders who have talked about the plan admitted that it had merit though they said in a political campaign it was difficult to promise cabinet positions without embarrassing the candidate himself. Nevertheless it is a fact that candidates often select their cabinets ahead of election time. This is one of the states that was suggested as a means of insuring success in November.

Attorney General—Charles Evans Hughes of New York.

Secretary of the Treasury—Frank Vanderlip.

Secretary of War—Leonard Wood or Lindley M. Garrison.

Secretary of Agriculture—Senator Capper of Kansas.

Secretary of Labor—Senator Kenyon of Iowa.

Postmaster General—Will Hays of Indiana.

Secretary of the Navy—Former Senator Weeks of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Interior—Governor Lowden of Illinois.

Secretary of Commerce—Herbert Hoover of California.

Of course it would be difficult to get the permission of men of such prominence to have their names used in a campaign that might not be successful, but all of the ten men are Republicans and most of them will probably be working publicly to help elect Senator Harding.

Again and again, business men who have come to Washington have complained about their treatment in government department. There seems to be no way to cure an error in choosing a Cabinet unless public opinion gets usually excited and even a liberal to a brief frequently causes presidents to hesitate to ask for resignation. These leaders who talked of the plan of nominating a cabinet in advance said that at least it had the merit of telling the public what they might expect in the ten different departments of the executive branch of the government.

Off Come Coats In Klinger's Court

Judge William Klinger of Allen County of common pleas, looked well to the comfort of jurymen in a trial Wednesday.

The heat in the court room was intense and the jurymen were suffering. There seemed not a breath of fresh air anywhere.

Judge Klinger arose and took off his coat. Then he invited jurymen, attorneys and witnesses to do so. He heard the trial in his shirt sleeves.

There were few men with coats on in the court room to keep on coats," the court said, as the trial proceeded.

Judge Klinger is also cutting short the court session, allowing the jury a long lunch hour, because of the extreme heat.

DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST

CITY BEING REHEARD

Trial of Kitty Kiser against the City of Lima is occupying the attention of Judge Klinger and a jury in common pleas court.

Backing up of water from a sewer into the cellar of a house owned by Mrs. Kiser on Pearl-st., was due to faulty construction by the city, testimony of witnesses for the plaintiff declared. The situation reached such a standpoint that Mrs. Kiser was compelled to leave. Mrs. Kiser lost the suit in court when first tried. The court of appeals reversed the decision and ordered a new trial, which is being heard Wednesday. Mrs. Kiser is asking for $200 damages.

FOURTH MUST BE SAFE AND SANE

Mayor and Cabinet to Decide Its Limitations

The fourth of July must be celebrated in Lima in a "safe and sane" manner.

Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt announced he would hold a conference late Wednesday with Service Director McClain and Fire Chief Mack to decide exactly what types of fireworks the ban will be placed upon.

"It is not the intention of the city administration to curb any expressions of patriotism," Mayor Burkhardt said, "but the use of any fireworks which will cause a fire menace or which may result in injuries will be strictly banned."

The use of torpedoes or rockets is prohibited by a state law according to the mayor and their use is banned except under proper supervision in parks or other public places where a public demonstration is being given.

It is the intention, according to Mayor Burkhardt, to exercise every precaution this year to cause the independence day celebration to pass in the city without an accident or fire.

IMA HOBO VISITOR

IN LIMA AGAIN

He's back again. Who? The "before the war" tramp, Mr. Ima Hobo, 23, residence anywhere, drifted into Lima Wednesday morning from Chicago. At 7:25 he stopped a reporter and coolly asked for "the price of a cup of coffee and a sandwich." His story hasn't changed in his absence of five years.

"I shipped out of Chicago and arrived here early this morning. I'm dead broke and haven't had anything to eat for a long time. I got off the train, went into the station and before I could get to it the train pulled out taking my money and baggage with it." Then he repeated the question stated above: "Our old friend looked as good as ever, healthy and strong but as usual unwilling to work."

COLLETT SEWER WORK

GOES FORWARD AGAIN

The work on the big Collett sewer is now going along nicely, according to C. W. Farley, the contractor. At the intersection of Elm-st. a touch of quicksand was found and it was that a special foundation would be necessary. Upon experimenting, however, the ground held and the foundation was not needed. A supply of cement was held up for some time but has recently arrived. The work is now up to standard and is getting along fine.

From the wheel will be drawn both jurors and grand jurors for the coming year.

One Barber Gloomy Over Outlook

Ye Old Barber Shop is going the way of Ye Old Oaken Bucket and Ye Little Mahogany Bar.

Lima barbers, who have closely watched circumstances, say the time is coming when it will be unknown. One barber, who has shingled mountains of hair off of thousands of homes in the city, looks for an entirely different state of affairs in the future.

"Instead of a line of chin-scrappers and a cur: 'next,' hurried at a row of waiting victims, the corner barber shop will be supplied with a professional nurse—like a doctor or dentist."

"Her duties will be to tell the customer, 'Now, Mr. Jones, the doctor will see you.' He'll have an office and there will be no unsightly, tell-tale barber pole in front of it."

"And he won't do much but hair-cut. The new safety razors and electric appliances make it easy for every man to take care of that," he said, as he yelled "Next."

SPECIAL GRAND JURY

SESSION TO BE CALLED

A special session of the Allen County grand jury will be called soon, according to Prosecuting Attorney John L. Cable, to act upon the case of Mrs. Frances Smith, alleged woman forger.

Mrs. Smith has been in the county jail since her trial was heard in police court about three weeks ago. The May grand jury recessed until the call of the prosecutor and they will again be called together.

"Mrs. Smith is causing the sheriff's wife a great deal of anxiety, continually raving and yelling and asking for drugs. I think it is best to act upon her case shortly," Cable said.

Mrs. Smith comes of a family prominent in the affairs of the state. A brother is high in the service of a railroad and her father also occupies a prominent place in business circles. Cable believes that Mrs. Smith's ability to secure cashing of the checks was probably due to the refinement she enjoyed in her earlier home life. She posed as a nurse.

OTTAWA IS ONLY R. R. FLAG STOP

Smaller Towns Will Now Depend On Ohio Electric

With the adoption of a new schedule by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Ottawa, in Putnam Co. is made a flag stop for fast trains and Columbus Grove is cut off the service.

The two passenger trains at noon are given increased speed and right-of-way with the intention of making them among the fastest on the road. Heretofore they made all local stops.

The noon train north will stop at Ottawa only on flag. Columbus Grove and other towns along the route are cut off entirely.

To counteract this change, two local trains have been placed on the road. The one from the north reaches Lima about 9:30 o'clock, running through from Toledo and leaves out of this city again for the north daily at about 10 o'clock.

Both noon trains are thru passengers from Detroit to Cincinnati. The small towns, by the new schedule, have the advantage only of the mail service. Practically all are served by the Ohio Electric railway, which has nearly hourly service.

COX SPECIAL TO CARRY 500

Many Reservations Are Made for Convention Trip

DAYTON.—With additions being made to the party every hour, it now appears there will be close to 500 persons on the "Governor Cox for President." Special trains will leave Saturday evening for the national Democratic convention in San Francisco. Colonel J. H. Dowling, who has charge of the arrangements, and John L. Miller, of the Big Four, today announced the adding of the 16th car to the trains, and intimated the likelihood of adding still more, or making up a third section.

When the plans for the trip were gotten under way it was said that at least 20 members of the Gem City Democratic club would be specially uniformed for the journey, but the number has now risen to 140, and it is likely a score of others may get suits.

According to Colonel Dowling, the city next Saturday afternoon will witness one of the biggest and most unique friendly, political demonstrations it has ever seen.

There will be a parade, with bands and flags and banners on Main-st., as the N. C. R. plant. There they will board special cars and go to the home of Governor and Mrs. Cox at Triltsend. The women will be taken from the Pythian temple to the Cox home in automobiles. A big reception, with refreshments, will be held by Governor and Mrs. Cox.

This will have no partisan significance; rather it will be an informal getting together of friends and there is no doubt that all political faiths will be represented. In fact, said Colonel Dowling, it will be a physical manifestation of a community wish that Governor Cox may be successful in his presidential aspirations.

FRANCES HASKELL MAKES DEBUT IN MOVIEDOM

Miss Frances Haskell, daughter of Charles N. Haskell, formerly of Ottawa, but now of Muskogee, Okla., where he was first governor of the state, made her screen debut in support of William Farnum in "The Adventurer".

Miss Haskell grew to young womanhood in Ottawa, where she was a social favorite. At that time her father, a widely-known Democratic politician, was interested in the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad.

"EYES OF YOUTH" GOOD PICTURE

Clara Kimball Young Stars at Regent in New Play

EDMUND LOWE IS OPPOSITE

"Too Much Johnson" Affords
Pleasing Entertainment

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

PERHAPS the thing that makes "The Eyes of Youth" as interesting as it undoubtedly is, aside from its finished presentation and attractive settings, is the fact that it is a problem play. Clara Kimball Young, played by Clara Kimball Young, has three careers, contending her, her voice, a wealthy marriage and her duty. And all the time there is her lover waiting for her, young handsome Peter.

From the old India comes a hindoo who, among other things, carries a crystal. And in the crystal he shows Clara what each one of the three lives told in store for her. It is during the showing of these different lives that Miss Young does some of the best acting of her career, especially when she sees herself following her unhappy marriage to the wealthy man, a discolored-looking drug fiend.

In the end she chooses Peter rather than wealth. Ambition or duty, and who wouldn't, with Edmund Lowe being the handsome suitor. Her nature and the art of the director, Miss Young is superb in this production and little faulting. She is the young star in the picture, "The Eyes of Youth" is the picture of the season, and should not be missed. It's at the Regent.

ALTHOUGH the title of a new picture here is "Too Much Johnson," it might well have been called, "Too Much Mother-in-Law," for the plot centers entirely around this personage. She dominates her daughter's husband's every move and rules him with an iron hand. Bryant Washburn is Randy, the poor excuse for a husband, and when mother-in-law makes him sell his beloved yacht, and stay home Saturday afternoon and mow the grass, he thinks he is a very much abused person. And he is.

When fate gives him a chance to sail on this old yacht as the guest of gushing Mrs. Dabbs, he accepts and changes his name to Johnson. That's where the trouble commences. There's other Johnsons in this world, and Randy soon finds that he should have chosen another name less generally used.

There's lots of good comedy and a merry plot, and Bryant Washburn gives his usual good performance. Lois Wilson is his wife, and is as soft and unimpressionable as a cloud. However, there's not one moment of bad acting in the picture, although there are one or two little houses pulled. Pauline Frederick is seen in "Daughter of the Old South," at the Majestic today.

ORPHEUM.
Today starts the four-day engagement of "The Brat" at the Orpheum, with Nazimova in the leading role. A ladies' symphony orchestra will be featured in all performances.

RIALTO.
Harry Carey is at the Rialto today in "Marked Men."

NOTES.
Virginia Lee is to star in "The Eyes of Youth." Oh, how the sunlight plays in his beautiful curls, or something like that, and all the time his curls are hidden by his cap. That, however, is an unimportant detail, and doesn't make the picture less interesting.

Freighton Hale appears in "The Thirteenth Chair," at the Lyric today.

She was in a terrible condition. Her nervous system was broken down. We had to take her from school. It took less than one bottle to relieve her neck. I had to go to the doctor for neck 12 inches and to the doctor for neck 12 inches. I am glad to tell any one our experience by letter or phone. Non-Supporting

There is a ten to one chance for every man that some time he will be unable to earn his own living; that he will become dependent upon his children or others for support.

The family may be glad to do everything possible for his comfort, but he cannot get away from the feeling of dependence.

While a man has earning ability he owes it to himself to lay aside a portion of his income for his own support when the day for work is over; and he owes it to his family to provide for their comfort when his support stops.

Therefore, the person with a savings account is simply paying an obligation—a thing no honest man will try to avoid.

Have your account with the Allen County Savings and Loan Company, Corner Market and Elizabeth Streets, where it will earn five per cent interest for you.

Great Lovemaker of Screen Gives Views on Love and Marriage

Low Code, acknowledged as the most finished love-maker of the silent drama soon to be seen at the Regent Theatre in "The Butterfly Man," the screen adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's novel of society life, has decided views on love and matrimony. Here are some of them:

The man who thinks woman's only weapon is her tongue had better read the divorce reports. If wives had their way no man would have a valet—they know more about their masters than the wives do.

No wonder the partners in matrimony don't trust each other these days—each knows the other's contract is breakable.

When a "chick-on" sings her "swan-song" to a "chick-blessed" man all other wives prepare their scolding weapon for the "chick."

Why marry? The way kisses, everything are being covered all a man will need in a few years is a girl he can talk to over the telephone.

Love at sixteen is like stolen jam—its charm lies more in its possession than its taste. At thirty love is the last record of the man who has experienced every other thrill, but at forty love is like stolen jam again!

being filmed, Jack Holt is starred.

"Courage in Quest of His Youth" will be the next story to be made into a movie by Cecil B. De Mille.

Tom Moore and Jare Novak will appear in "The Great Accident."

When You Pay More You Get More

The proportion of actual net profit to cost in manufacturing and retailing shoes we believe is down to a minimum. Years ago shoes were as low as anything else; today shoes are lower, proportionately, than many staple articles, yet their service, their beauty and comfort are greatly enhanced. You get more for your money in shoes, by comparison; therefore, buy for your needs, with confidence in their greater worth.

GREATEST OF ALL STARS IN HER LATEST & GREATEST PRODUCTION

BRAT

In her study of the strange little street waif, Nazimova runs the entire range of the emotions. Never has she had a role that calls for so amazing a display of her powers of mimicry, facial expression and pantomime. "The Brat" is a creature of mood; as variable as April zephyrs—as fleeting as sunbeams dancing on a bubble. And no more admirable impersonation than this could be found for Nazimova, "the star of a thousand moods." SEVEN SUPERB ACTS SURPASSING HER PREVIOUS SUCCESSES.

MADE SURE HIS SUICIDE WOULD BE SUCCESSFUL
 EUREKA SPRINGS, Ark.,—Charles Buchanan, thirty-six, a Department of Justice agent, took no chances on failure in his attempt to shuffle off the mortal coil here the other day.

After placing a noose around his neck, he shot himself twice beneath the jaw and then kicked away the barrel, upon which he stood.

Life was extinct when his body was discovered and cut down.

Only for ladies who end corns

Dainty shoes are only for those who end corns.

The way is simple, quick and easy, and is sure. Millions of people employ it.

Apply Blue-jay, the liquid or the plaster. That touch will stop the pain.

Then wait a little and the corn will loosen and come out.

Then why does anybody suffer corns? Just because they don't know. They pare corns and keep them. Or they pad them. Or they use a treatment harsh and ineffective.

Blue-jay is scientific. This world-famed laboratory created it.

Year after year, it is keeping millions entirely free from corns.

Perhaps half the corns that start are now ended by it.

Ask your druggist for Blue-jay. Learn tonight how much it means to you.

WAR-TIME HEADS ALL OUT NOW

State Department Stripped as Polk Quits

WASHINGTON — With the retirement of Frank Lyon Polk as under-secretary of state, the state department was stripped of all the high officials who conducted America's diplomacy throughout the war.

Next to Secretary of State Lansing who was a member of the original American peace delegation, Polk has had the greatest experience in the various bureaus and tangled problems incident to the conclusion of the war, of any official in the state department.

Polk was succeeded Tuesday by Norman H. Davis, until recently assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of foreign loans.

Besides Lansing and Polk, other war-time officials who have left the state department are William Phillips as assistant secretary of state, and Brookings as his third assistant secretary of state.

GIVES $1,000,000 TO ROCHESTER SCHOOL

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — A gift of $1,000,000 by George Eastman for the school of music of the University of Rochester was announced at the meeting of the board of trustees of the university. It was also announced that the General Education Board has given $200,000 toward the million dollar endowment toward the university for a teachers' salary fund. The university has already raised $250,000 of the fund.

Mr. Eastman has already given in excess of $3,500,000 for the school of music. Last week he gave $1,000,000 to the dental dispensary he had established here toward a school of medicine and surgery for the university. To this gift the General Educational Board added a gift of $5,000,000.

PAYING ESTIMATES FILED.
City Auditor, David L. Eupat, received Tuesday, estimates from the Andrew, Arnall Paying Co. for May as follows: Albert-st., $248.62; N. Charles-st., $182.54; S. Union-st., $850.90.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Many Lima people have used them and know how effective they are. Here's a Lima case.

Mrs. H. E. Simpson, 625 E. Kirby-st., says: "I had weak kidneys for a good many years. I had a dragging ache in my back and was so lame I could hardly get up or down. My kidneys acted irregularly and other symptoms showed they were out of order. I became restless and nervous and couldn't get much sleep. Morning I felt more tired than before going to bed and I was often bothered with dizziness. When I went over I often had to catch hold of something to keep from falling. I tried different remedies without getting relief but when I used Doan's Kidney Pills, they soon helped me. After using three boxes my kidneys were acting regularly, my backache was gone and I had no more dizziness."

Phenomenal Gain Shown in 3 Weeks by Prominent Man

Suffered long time from weak kidneys, rheumatism, lazy liver, poor appetite, broken sleep, and stomach disorders

Declares new remedy Dreo went to the bottom of his troubles

There's no reason why any man or woman should be thin and puny when Nature has bountifully provided the means for robust health and joyful strength. Thousands of people are on the road to nervous prostration and don't know it. They start out each day with an effort, excited, minds clouded, tongues coated. At the end of the day they have reached the limit of their strength. They realize that something is wrong, but they go on hoping that they can shake off this listless feeling. And then a change in the weather, a damp raw spell, or a sudden chill wind suddenly shatters their weakened bodies and they are forced to their beds. This is all wrong.

It takes would only remember that disease is eradicated only when the body is lacking in vitality to combat it, there would be less deaths and less suffering.

"I have been greatly benefited by taking Dreo; really I'm surprised myself at the difference in my feelings now and what they were three weeks ago," said Mr. Leonard Chipponer who is employed by the White Mountain Creamery Co. and resides at 728 S. Elizabeth St., Lima, O.

"I no longer have catarrhs nor nausea after meals but my food digests fully. My kidneys act so well that I no longer suffer from back ache nor rheumatism. My liver has been cleaned off, thereby overcoming those dizzy spells, spots before my eyes and headaches and my nerves are quieted so that I sleep sound and well. My eyesight has cleared and my whole system has been rebuilt, thanks to this wonderful Dreo."

Dreo is not an experiment. It is a safe, harmless combination of natural extracts and contains no dangerous minerals, acids, oils or salts. It is Nature's medicine and can be taken with safety into the most delicate system—Dreo is inexpensive and is now dispensed by modern drug stores almost everywhere.

All good druggists now sell Dreo and it is highly recommended in Lima by Baldwin's Central Drug Store, Cor. Main and Highways.

GOMPERS TOO BRIEF

WHEN Samuel Gompers said "the C. O. P. have turned their backs on labor" he might have gone a little further and said they have turned their backs on the American people. Such appears to be the case. At least that is what most organizations have to say of the recent action at Chicago.

The American Federation of Labor had declared war on the republican party before the convention was over. Now the secretary of the Farmers' National Council declares there is nothing in the republican platform to reassure the farmers of America. He says the platform recognizes several existing evils in farming conditions but does not pledge action to justify them. The endorsement of the transportation act and legislation to turn American ships over to British and American shipping interests is another thing complained of. The secretary declares these two measures jointly will spell financial loss and perhaps disaster for hundreds of thousands of farmers.

The American soldiers who willingly gave themselves in defense of their country may justly be disappointed by the republican platform. There is nothing pledged to them in the way of compensation for the services they gave at a dollar a day while others remained at home and made ten times as much and without any danger.

The American soldiers who willingly gave up to the entire nation. It is a "Safety First" affair and if any republican voter, male or female can tell exactly what it means they should have a medal. It scuttles or ignores every important issue before the country and if the abuse of the Wilson administration were omitted—abuse concerning things the republicans do not offer any suggestions or pledges for rectifying—there would be mighty little left of it.

Mr. Gompers was entirely too brief. He might truthfully have said that nearly every voter who really thinks and has an interest in his nation's welfare is greatly disappointed and absolutely disgusted.

RULE, BRITAIN, RULE THE OIL!

Oil, for several generations has stimulated the imagination, and never more poignantly than at present. An English financial paper has recently decided that the new British situation in petroleum is the most striking result of war conditions. It sets out figures purporting to show that in 1914, the effective British share of the oil resources of the world was about 2 per cent, whereas it is now around 75 per cent. It adds, "Assuming the accuracy of the statistics, we may say that we have, almost in spite of ourselves, aye, almost in a fit of absentmindedness, got a healthy grip upon the control of that very commodity upon which our destiny depends. Our lowest foundations were built on wool. The next course was coal and now the noble superstructure is to rise on oil."

All of this does not necessarily prove that England has attained to control of three quarters of the world's supply of petroleum; it may merely illustrate the potency oil still has to stir the imagination.

HOT WEATHER SUGGESTIONS

THERE is no necessity of informing the public that summer is here in earnest: weather conditions during the last several days have impressed the fact very forcibly. At times such as this, wise folk read the signs of the times and prepare themselves accordingly. They do this by altering their dress and changing their eating habits.

It is necessary that this be done in hot weather. Clothing suitable for winter or spring wear is not suitable for the summer and likewise many things we eat in winter should be passed up when the thermometer is registering 90 to 95 in the shade. Many persons feel the effects of overeating or eating the wrong things in the heat of summer and pay a dear price for their folly.

There are a number of things among drinks which your physician will tell you to avoid. Of these he will tell you that iced water is not a thirst quencher and that you should not use a great quantity of it; that the stomach should not be cooled off suddenly on a hot day as iced water will do.

The principal thing to be remembered is to be comfortable as possible. You may not be able to spruce up and look as well as you may on a cooler day, but personal appearance must be sacrificed to some extent for comfort in summer. One's vitality is easily sapped during the heat period and a thought in time may save sickness of a serious nature.

INEFFICIENT EFFICIENCY

SIMPLIFICATION is a great desideratum in these piping post-war days. Even the communistic government in Hungary got the idea. Its "simplified" procedure for the benefit of a man who wanted to replace a broken window ran in this wise:

Get a certificate from the duly elected representative responsible for the house, setting forth in legal exactness the pertinent facts about the damaged window. Have the certificate countersigned by the engineering bureau of the workers' council for the district. Take the countersigned certificate to the district glazier's office, who in due course will have his subordinate measure the offending window and estimate the cost of its rehabilitation. Obtain from the district glazier after his function, are completed, a ticket setting forth his findings and the cost. Take this ticket to the central glazier's office and pay the price shown by the ticket and receive a labor card. Carry this card back to the district glazier, who will eventually have his workmen insert a new pane of glass.

FACE CAMOUFLAGE

"SAVE the surface and you save all." That is the advice of a local advertiser in urging the purchase of his paint. That may be true as to the application of paint to wood and iron but not as to faces. But then, when you come to think of it, rouge is not claimed to be a preservative—only a camouflage.

DISILLUSIONMENT

The veil of the future baffled me,
When I would fain see through,
Though it was only a web of fairy wings

Woven of light and dew,
A soft breeze ruffled the curtain—
A shimmering mist of blue;
Oh, why was there torn a tiny rift?
Oh, why did I see through?

JUDITH of BLUE LAKE RANCH

By JACKSON GREGORY

Bud Lee grinned and a new look crept into his eyes. "Being Bud Lee," he answered frankly "I wouldn't stand it for one little tick of the clock. If you want me to swap talk with you all day at ninety bucks a month, all right. I'd say there's two kinds of men, too. There's one kind, there's the Blue Lake Lee kind. You see, he's a sort of relation of mine, is Dave Burdell Lee,
and I'm not exactly proud of him.
He's that kind that wears dress-suits and sticks in a bungalow. He's proud of his name Burdell and Lee,
both, because big men down South were men before he did, and they were relations. He's a swell up over the way he can dance and ride over a fox, and over the cut he's got in the back. Then there's Bud Lee, who ducks out of that sort of a scrub-shed and beats it for the open. "I get you!" broke in Judith, her eyes very bright. "And you men here, my men, want me to be the sort of woman that your precious cousin, Dave Burdell, is a man? Is that it? Where's your logic this morning?"

"Meaning horse sense," he smiled.
"It's in these few little words
"What's right for a man may be dead wrong for a woman."

"Oh, sure!" she cried impatiently.
"What am I waiting time with you for? You're right when you say that if I am paying you ninety dollars a month and grub and blankets I'd better get something out of you besides talk." She swung back to her table.
"What was Trevors' latest excuse for selling at a sacrifice?"
she asked, her tone dry and business-like. "Why was he selling those horses at fifty dollars a head?"

"Told me he just had a wire last night from young Hampton, asking for three thousand," he explained in a similar tone, though his eyes were twinkling at her.
"Pollock Hampton has his nerve!"
she snapped. She took up the telephone instrument at her elbow and demanded the Western Union at Rocky Bend. Judith Sanford
speaking, she said crisply. "Repeat the message of last night for the general manager, Blue Lake Ranch."

In a moment she had it. "So Trevors wasn't lying about that part of it," she said reluctantly. And to the Western Union agent, "Take this message."
Pollock Hampton, Hotel Glenlyn,
San Francisco: Impossible send money now or
for some time. Have fired Trevors.
Running outfit myself. Need every cent up on raise to pay interest on loans, men's salaries and keep going.

This is final.
JUDITH SANFORD, General Manager.

"That may start his gray matter working," she ended as she clicked up the receiver. "Now, Lee, will you stick with me ten days or so and help me time to get a man in your place?"

"Yes, I'll do that, Miss Sanford."
"You will help me in every way you can while you are with me?"

"When I work for a man—or a woman," he added gravely, "I don't hold back anything."

"All right. Then start in right away and tell me about the gang Trevors has taken on. Are they all crooks?"

"I wouldn't say so. I wouldn't put it that strong."

"That little gray, quick-spoken man with the smelly pipe—he's straight, isn't he?"

"That would be old Carson? Yes;
he's a good man. You won't find a better."

"Is he going to quit, too? Just because I've come?"

Lee shook his head. "If you work him right Carson will stick right along. Being white clean through, being broader-minded than I am,"
and the twinkle came again into his eyes. "Carson'll show you a square deal."

"Has he any love for Bayne Trevors?"

"Maybe you'd better ask Carson."
In a flash she was on her feet
and had gone to the door. "Carson!"
she called loudly. "Come here, will you?"

There was a little silence, a very sound of laughter, then Carson's sharp voice answered: "I'm coming!"

Judith went back to her chair.
She did not speak until Carson's wry
form slipped through the doorway.
Then with the old cattleman's shrewd, hard eyes upon her she turned from a cup full of papers
she had been looking through and spoke to him quietly.

"You used to work for the Granite Canyon crowd, didn't you, Carson?"

"Yes," he answered.
"Cattle foreman there for several years?"

"Helped clean out the Roaring Creek kang, didn't you, Carson?"

Carson shifted a bit, colored under her fixed eyes, and finally admitted:
"Yes'm."

"Haven't had a real first-class
fight for quite a bit, have you, Carson? Not since that gash on your jaw healed? Not since you and Scotty Webb mixed with the Roaring Creek-ers?"

Carson rubbed his jaw, flashed a quick look at Bud Lee as though for moral support, looked still further embarrassed, and finally choked over his brief:

"No'm."

Judith sat smiling brightly up at his hard features. "I've heard dad talk about that," she said thoughtfully. "I guess I've got at least one real man on the ranch, Carson.
Oh, don't dodge like that! I'm not going to put my arms around and kiss you on the top of your head.
But I do love a man that loves a fair fight. Lee, here, has given me his promise to stick on the job for ten days or so, to give me time to get some one else to look after my horses."

"Yes'm," said Carson, fingering
his pipe and looking down.

"For a few moments the girl sat still, now and then flashing a quick keen look from one to the other of her two foremen. Then, abruptly, her eyes on Carson, she snapped:

"You've found out, more or less recently, haven't you, that Bayne Trevors is a crook? You've perhaps even guessed that he's been taking money from me with one hand and from the Western Lumber with the other?"

"Yes'm," said Carson. "I doped
it up like that."

"Why," cried the girl, "he's fired
all of the old men and Heaven knows how many of his sort he's put in their places! Help me clean 'em out, Carson! Where will we begin?
I've chucked Trevors and Ward Hannon. Who goes next, Carson?"

"Benny the cook," said Carson gently. "An' I'd be obliged, ma'am, if you'd let me go beat him off the
ranch."

"That's talking," she said enthusiastically. "You can attend to him. Any one else?"

Carson shook his head. "I got my suspicions," he said. "But that's all I'm dead sure on."

"The others can wait then. Now,
I'm taking a gamble on you and Lee. You have all kinds of chances to double-cross me. But I've got to take a chance now and then. I'm going to tell you something. Trevors is trying to sell me out to the Western Lumber people. He is one of their crowd and has been since they bought him up six months ago.
They want our timber tract over the range."

YOUR NAME

(BY PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN)

VARIATION—Tighman
RACIAL ORIGIN—Anglo-Saxon.
SOURCE—An occupation.

Tyler is another of those old Anglo-Saxon surnames which antedates
the system of French nomenclature which the Normans laid over England in the several centuries following the conquest.

At first glance you would be apt to consider it a shortened form of Taylor, but it is not. Its spelling only is misleading. The pronunciation even today, reveals the occupation from which it sprang.

A tiler, of course, would be a man
who makes tiles or who lays tiles.
And what use did the medieval English and the even more rough and ready Anglo-Saxons before them have for tiles?

They used them for roofing their houses, not for make beautiful floors. The tiler of medieval England were more often sturdy workmen than skilled artists or artisans, and, with the carpenters and the smiths, they formed the backbone of that oldest nobility on earth
—the nobility of labor.

The surname first appears with the spelling, weird to our modern eyes of Tyghelere, the ending being a contraction of the old Anglo-Saxon
"were," meaning "man." Tighman, of course, is simply another form of the name, retaining somewhat more of the original spelling and meaning exactly the same thing. Later such Norman forms as "le Tugler," "le Tuler" and "le Tewler" appeared, but none of these appear to have had the staying qualities of the Anglo form, for they are rarely, if ever, found today, while Tylers and Tighmans may be found in any sections of England or the United States you choose to look for them.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

WHAT REMEDIES TO LUG ALONG
The United States Public Health Service, Washington, D. C., is an organization conducted by some of our most painstaking doctors. Last year the service issued a free booklet which tells the anxious reader just how to take "The Safe Vacation."

As a New York editor remarked:
"Hardy is the citizen who, after reading this booklet, does not conclude that even with the actors on strike, New York is the best summer resort for a safe vacation."

Mark Twain gives a list of the necessary articles to be taken along by a traveler who is going to climb the Rifberg, and among other items are two barrels of arnica and 154 umbrellas. The P. H. S. list of emergency remedies to take on your vacation includes something like half a gallon of castor oil and several clips of the famous C. C. pills (C. C. meaning either compound cathartic or contains calomel). All the list lacks to insure a perfectly safe vacation is a stretcher and a steam sterilizer. When I began practice I used to carry constantly next my liver a complete surgical emergency case. In the course of a few years
I wrote out three such cases carrying them around and never amputated
a leg.

Here are some odds and ends to stick in a pocket in your car or a corner of your carpetbag when you are going on a vacation:

Iodine, two drams in a heavy vial
enclosed in a wooden case.

Aromatic spirits of ammonia, one ounce.

Flexible collodion, two drams.

Adhesive plaster, one-inch spool.
Bandages, one each, one inch,
two inches, three inches.

Gauze, two sealed one-yard envelopes. Cotton, two ounces.

Vaseline, one-ounce tube.
Headache tablets, preferably acetylsalicylic acid.

Laxative tablets, preferably one-grain phenolphthalein.
Paregoric, one ounce.

Boric acid, one ounce.
Three salitiz powders.

The iodine should be swabbed
once immediately after every cut, scratch or wound. Small wounds
may be sealed over with collodion.
Larger ones may be drawn together with adhesive plaster, and covered with some vaseline, gauze, cotton and bandage. A half teaspoonful of aromatic spirits of ammonia given in one-fourth glassful of cold water is a quick stimulant for shock or fainting. Paregoric is for belly-ache. About a teaspoonful of boric acid dissolved in a cupful of boiled water makes a gentle, non-irritating and non-poisonous antiseptic solution for bathing inflamed eyes, for mouth wash or for gargle. A salitiz powder settles a sick stomach and acts as a saline laxative. The whole outfit may be carried in your pocket. No need to lug along a dispensary equipment unless you are planning to set up as a camp doctor.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Just 2,012 years ago today, the first poker game was played. The user, after seeing his stone hatchet and arrow heads vanish, wavered his sift, and lost. As the laws at that time forbade a woman battering or otherwise disposing of her husband,
the ladies have always been prejudiced against the game. The harlem also made its first appearance on that day.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED AND EARNED

JANE PHELPS

GETTING THE KENYONS SETTLED

Mary was to be married in the little Church Around the Corner. "We were to be married in that church ever since I was a poor little kiddie peeking through the fence and thinking it was like heaven in there," she told us when we asked her where she was going to have the ceremony. "Here won't be anybody there except you boys and Gardner's. But I wouldn't feel I was married anywhere else."

"And as I want her to feel married, I think she better have her wedding," Gardner looked proudly at the bright girl who—without help from anyone—without relatives, almost without a friend—had made a place for herself, and had kept good and sweet.

We had given her our presents. She was to be married the next day. They were to go away for a couple of weeks, then go directly to their home. The furniture would all be in place and they would only have to put it in place.

Mary laughed, she cried, she hugged us all, even the boys, in her delight at her gifts.

"Why girls, if I fairly had told you what to give me—I believe one of them could have made those things in the world, Gerry declared.

"You've won," Betty declared.

"And oh, won't I be proud of my room!" Gardner bought me the latest suite, ivory and cane. I shall blow up and bust if someone don't say something. I want to cry.

Down went her head on the table, and Mary Ryan, the poor little self-made girl, who had come into her own at last, cried as if her heart would break for a moment. Then she raised her head and said:

"Come here, Gardner, and wipe my eyes. I haven't any handkerchief."

We all screamed with laughter. And Mary, herself again, joined us.

"Just a shower, girls, that was all. Can't have the sunshine all the time. Gardner would get tanned."

They left early. After they had gone, we sat and talked of them

DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

By PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

LINDSEY COOKS A MEAL FOR HER PROSPECTIVE MOTHER-IN-LAW

Spent a fussy morning in the kitchen this a. m. Will try to put down my emotions in said place. They were varied.

It came about this way. Cook, the haughty princess, decided that it was high time to change her place. Last night, and with but a scathing adieu and about one hour's notice she departed, leaving consternation in her waving wake! Cooks are so "objectionous" these days, as Nanny would put it.

Well, my better nature came to the surface when I saw the harassed look come into dear little mother's eyes. For I saw that she was going to take it hard—she always has. The house and its affairs are her demigogs. (Word is not right, I know.)

I smiled at her bravely as I told her not to worry. That I, Lindsey, would guarantee to get the lunch, and if there was anything left of me after that feat, would try my hand at the dinner, too.

I must say that this announcement was not received with rapturous calls—nothing like it. To be sure, mother made a twisted smile, and told me that it was swell of me to want to help her, but did I remember that Jack's mother was coming for luncheon a one, and that she had a weak stomach?

My face fell, and my spirits with it. But I determined to do the world that could do what I set out to do, and told mother same with efficiency every inflection of my voice.

Overjoyed at the simplification of my program, I flew up to set the table for the honored guest. Made a pretty good job of it, then descended to the lower regions again.

I'll draw the curtain of charity over the rest of that cooking test. Suffice to say that I have learned something about the much vaunted and omelets, and their simplicity. Mine did about everything to worry me, that a dozen harmless looking eggs possibly could. And ended by clinging desperately to the pan and tilting it out ruthlessly, when—by, at five past one, and deposited in on the dainty silver platter—best thing about the luncheon, by the way!

Everything was in its place, and we sat down to luncheon. I, a little flushed as to face, and having as satisfied—until... words fell from me. Mother had just finished telling Mrs. Jack, Sr. that Lindsey had cooked the luncheon, and the omelet was or rather a morsel of it was in a rag. I lifted it out ruthlessly, and on the lady's fork, when—there was a choking sound from her end of the table. Being a lady, she downed the piece, and yet another, but when my plate came round and I took my first mouthful I knew the worst. It was burned.

Then mother kept right on cooking about her Lindsey, and cooking and such folly, till her turn came. Then she, too, became galvanized, even as Mrs. Jack and I.

"Nuff said, I will never be cast as heroine for kitchen movies." (To be continued.)

BESS MORELAND'S MANEUVERS

I did not speak.

"Oh! of course I know you do not approve of it," he said roughly, "but you know Elizabeth is all alone and I think she will make a nice companion for mother."

"Did your mother suggest the partnership?" I asked.

"Well, I have really forgotten who suggested it, but Elizabeth told me that since living had become so expensive it wasn't easy to get along. And I thought that you would be much better pleased than to have mother come with us."

"I certainly should," I said firmly, although my first impulse had been one of annoyance, when I thought of Elizabeth Moreland living with John's mother. I quickly decided that I would not go there when she was at home. But I was quite sure that she would not remain very long, because she and Madam Gordon could not get along together.

"What's Alice thing about it all?" "Alice didn't say much," he said gravely.

"John, you are not telling me the whole truth," I said with a smile. "You know Alice always has an opinion on every subject and she certainly would have one on this."

"Well, she said," spoke John slowly, "that probably Elizabeth and mother would have a cat and parrot time."

"I don't know why you women are all so down on Elizabeth Moreland. I wouldn't be half so attentive to her

JACK DEMPSEY, ACQUITTED, STANDS READY TO FIGHT CARPENTIER

CLEVELAND COMPLETES SERIES WITH YANKS WITH VICTORY—REUTHER ON MOUND FOR REDS BEATS DODGERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, heavyweight pugilistic champion of the world, announced today that Dempsey would be ready within two weeks to meet Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight or "he will fight any one else in the world if Carpentier is unwilling to talk fight."

Kearns issued a statement asserting that Dempsey's acquittal yesterday of a draft-evasion charge in the United States district court here left his war record clear and that "there could be no more whispered campaign carried on about him."

He said he and the champion needed a two weeks rest after the strain of the trial and then they would be ready to arrange for a bout with the Frenchman.

By JOE BERNSTEIN.

JACK DEMPSEY, holder of the world heavyweight title since last July Fourth, and since then attacked for alleged attempts to evade service over seas, was acquitted yesterday by a jury in a United States district court.

Following close on that acquittal, his Manager, Jack Kearns, announced that the champion is ready to meet Carpentier, the French title holder or any other boxer who would care to stack up against his protegee.

The bout with Carpentier is unquestionably the one which the American sporting public would like to see, and the sooner it is arranged for, the better it would get away.

There is some doubt as to where the general trend of favoritism would be cast should the two mix. One, the Frenchman, is representative of the men who participated in the great world war. The other, Dempsey, can claim the support of the American boxing fan, only because of the fact that he is an American.

Labor day has been suggested as a date for a bout between the two title holders. It is possibly just the right distance away from the present day to allow the two men to begin to train.

It would settle one dispute anyway—that of whether or not the European champ or the American champ is entitled to the real world's heavyweight title.

INDIANS WIN EDGE OVER YANKS—RED SEE SAW

Cleveland finished its four game series with New York yesterday by winning its third and last game. Bagby hurled for the Indians and among his strikeouts during the nine innings was the unquenchable Babe Ruth.

The result of the series looks good to Ohio fans, for it gives the Cleveland aggregation an edge over the New York team that promises steady playing during the remainder of the season.

Indians (11) unquestionably are contenders for the world's championship.

And while the Indians were completing their series with the Yanks, the Reds came back with Reuther on the mound and defeated Brooklyn.

It seems that Reuther is the one

Georges Carpentier.

CARPENTIER WON'T FIGHT THIS YEAR

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(By United Press).—Prospects of a battle between Georges Carpentier, French boxer, and Jack Dempsey, for the heavyweight title this year, went glimmering Wednesday.

Carpentier, here on a tour, expressed his pleasure over Dempsey's acquittal, but said it will not interfere with his plans to sail for France July 10. It is believed the Frenchman will wait until next year before meeting the champion. He is expected to return here in September.

"Now I can talk championship fight," said Carpentier, when informed of Dempsey's acquittal. "The verdict has removed the last obstacle in the way of our match."

Carpentier confirmed the postponement of his Levinsky bout.

POLICE A WAIT JOHNSON

TIJUANA, Mexico.—Officials of the Department of Justice of the United States were waiting at the border tonight to place Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, under arrest when he steps across the line.

The new Mexican Government has ordered Johnson, who has been a fugitive from justice on a conviction of "white slavery" for eight years, to leave the country. He is an "undesirable" they say, and he has no place to go except the United States and jail. For if he fails to leave willingly, Johnson will be deported.

INDEPENDENTS BOOK TWO TEAMS FOR SUNDAY

The second doubleheader of the year is to be offered Lima baseball fans this coming Sunday.

Following close on the exhibition staged with the Dayton Triangles last week, the Chicago Keystones, familiar to Lima fans, and a strong aggregation bailing out of Celina have been booked for the next day of baseball here.

The weather interfered with a scheduled appearance of the Triangles here two weeks ago, and therefore, Bernie Holleran, manager of the Lima Independents shifted them ahead for last week's doubleheader.

As a result, the Keystones, who were slated for last Sunday were forced to wait a week. The Celina aggregation has been after the Lima team for some time. Holleran figured that they could be worked in on the same day this Keystones would play here.

SHARKEY WANTS MUCH FOR WILDE SCRAP

Jack Sharkey will fight Jimmy Wilde, the flyweight champion, next fall in London, he says, but he demands not less than $25,000.

Sharkey made his reply Saturday to the National Sporting Club, which offered him $15,000 for a twenty-round go. The fight would be a decision contest. Sharkey is confident that he can stop Wilde within twenty rounds, he says.

FANDOM PLEASED AT ACQUITTAL

By HENRY L. FARRELL.

NEW YORK.—It may not be a unanimous feeling, but fandom in general seems to be pleased at the act of the federal jury in removing the cloak of a "draft dodger" from Jack Dempsey.

Dempsey, perhaps, was the most popular American champion when he laid low the giant Willard and won the world's heavyweight crown.

He made friends from the time his war record was first questioned until the jury cleared him on the first counts. Even those who were most bitter toward him have to admit that thru it all, his conduct was exemplary.

The champion proved himself at least a good sport, in not trying to retaliate. He remained silent before his accusers and asked only for a chance to lay his cards on the table.

At stake was more than the champion's name and his future. Upon the final result of the trial depends a large part of the success of efforts to put boxing on a high plane in the United States.

With the heavyweight champion of the world an American, behind the bars doing time for being a coward, foreign critics of the American game, who now make mountains out of molehills, would have choice material to continue their assaults. It would prove a severe handicap also to the International Sporting Club and other organizations, which have about reached the realization of their dreams to make boxing a sport worth while game in America.

Acquittal of Dempsey also will serve to clear some doubt as to the sincerity of Georges Carpentier, who came over from France with the avowed purpose of meeting the champion.

It will call for a show down from the Frenchman.

Carpentier spent his early days here in a swirl of popularity, but it has been waning. His exhibition and his stunts were failures.

The fight with Battling Levinsky was announced and very few fell for it. That fight is now off until November.

Carpentier and Descamps are leaving July 10 for France and will return in November, it is said.

The impression is general in fight circles here that if Dempsey doesn't get Carpentier before he leaves, the Frenchman will never come back.

BLAMES MCGRAW FOR FAILURE

There are reasons to believe that Dave Robertson, one-time Giant, now with the Cubs, has been a victim of too much management.

He was always rated as a potential 250 hitter, but only once in his career did he surpass .300.

Dave says:

"I suppose the public thinks McGraw has treated me with forebearance. My main complaint with McGraw was and is that he tries to handle everybody alike."

"It is a system that will never develop a star. My baseball career up to date has been a disappointment to everyone, most of all to myself."

"I am quite certain that I could have developed into a 350 hitter if left alone. I prefer to make infield in the air more than any other position."

PREDICT BIG COMEBACKS.

Baseball fans are pulling for Babe Ruth this spring. He is a real comeback. One big league umpire says that when Adams gets in the box for the Pirates everybody gets a real game.

MACK PASSED UP FRISCH

Frank Frisch is one youngster that the wise and far-seeing Connie Mack failed to pick while the picking was good. He's sorry since Frank is fast becoming the idol of the Giant fans.

Connie says: "I looked him over on several occasions and I regret that I didn't grab him when he was at Fordham. Frisch is just the kind of player that Eddie Collins was when I took him out of Columbia."

"The young Giant is more advanced in playing than Collins was when he first joined the Athletics. Nothing better than these young collegians when you are lucky enough to discover them."

Four Brooklyn pitchers were fouled by the champion Reds who made it three out of four by winning the last game of the series 10 to 5.

Wampus Hums

TUESDAY'S HERO—Nicholson. The Pirate pinch hitter delivered a homer in the ninth inning with one on, tying the score. A double steal in the tenth scored the run that beat the Phils, 7 to 6.

The Indians passed their first crisis safely, beating the Yankees 10 to 2 in the last game of the series.

Shorten's homer, with one on, gave the Tigers a 3 to 2 victory over the Athletics and made a clean sweep of the series.

The White Sox found three Washington pitchers soft and gave Eddie Cicotte such a lead that he just breezed thru, winning 9 to 5.

Eight runs in the third inning gave the Browns a 12 to 8 victory over the Red Sox and made it four straight in the series.

Rogers Hornsby was beamed by Doc Lavan and forced to leave the game. The Cards beat the Giants 8 to 7 and made it a clean-up in the series. Hornsby will be out of the game only a few days.

Dempsey Challenges Carpentier

Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, issued the following open statement yesterday to Georges Carpentier, the French title holder:

"Now Georges Carpentier, we're ready. If you have come to America to fight here's your chance. Jack Dempsey is free and ready to meet you anywhere in the world. The next move is all so yours."

COLORED BOXER OUTCLASSES MOORE

COLUMBUS.—Leo Johnson, of New York, colored lightweight champion of the world, completely outclassed Jackie Moore, local lightweight in a 15-round bout here Tuesday night. Moore's clinching tactics made the bout uninteresting. Johnson took every round.

In the preliminaries, Chuck Ryan of Columbus, forced Charlie Popp, also of Columbus, to quit in the third round of a four-round semi-final. Billy Gibbs beat Buddy Walsh in the four-round opener. Both boys are local boys.

LUTHERAN SYNOD IN SESSION

Thousand Delegates Assemble at Detroit Wednesday

DETROIT, Mich. — The Evangelical Lutheran synod of Missouri, Ohio and other States, an organization of 1,000,000 members, is to sit in convention in Detroit, June 16 to 26, with approximately 1,000 representatives present.

Ways of relieving the spiritual and physical wants of Europeans and the reduplication of plans for missionary work in harmony with the church's conditions abroad will engage the principal thought of the delegates.

The Missouri synod, which is the largest body of conservative Lutherans in America, follows Democratic organization lines in that the clergy and the laity have equal voice. The synod is divided into districts of ten parishes each, and each district is entitled to one delegate and one spokesman from the clergy.

Opening services will be held in St. Andrew's Lutheran church, Baker-st. and Trumbull-ave., with Rev. Dr. Frederick Brand, of Springfield, Ill., vice-president of the national body, making the convention address.

Harmonie Hall will house all business sessions. Rev. F. Pfister, national president, will preside. Rev. Dr. Richard Biederman, dean of Concordia Seminary, of Springfield, will be acting secretary, and the doctrinal discussions will be in charge of Dr. Frank Pieper, dean of the Lutheran Seminary at St. Louis.

Among representatives of mission fields expected are Rev. F. Zucker and Rev. F. Kuehse, of Travancore, South India, although the affair of pretty nearly every quarter of the globe will be told by men in intimate touch with needs and conditions.

A distinctive feature of the national Lutheran conventions—the approaching one is the sixteenth—is the stress laid on "the doctrine of justification by faith without the works of the law," those of the creed holding that there is first must be righteousness, faith, and righteousness of life necessarily will follow.

CITY BUILT HOMES FOR WORKERS IS AKRON PLAN

AKRON. — Mayor Carl F. Beck, advocates the construction of homes for workers thru the issuance of municipal bonds.

Akron was one of the first cities in the United States to take up the matter of rent control as a means of regulating housing conditions. Legislation passed by council on March 19, creating a board of correction and supervision, was designed with a view of curbing rent hoards and protecting tenants against whom eviction action had been started. Excellent results have been obtained. The housing problem, however, still is serious and far from solution. Before the municipality can legally issue bonds for such a purpose according to Beck, a state law will have to be passed, giving municipalities power to make such expenditures.

A new high price has been established for coal. Mayor Burkhardt today the city had just ordered ten car loads of Hocking valley run of mine at $8 per ton. This is $1 more than has ever been paid before. The purchase was made, he said, to tide the city over until a shipment of West Virginia coal arrives.

Health conditions here are exceptionally good for this time of the year, according to Miss Margaret Nash, registrar.

PRESIDENT SMITH FOR DRY.

Smith in an address to the Ohio Northern University students. Dr. Smith stated that he favored the G. O. P. stand on the labor question and also the nomination of Harding.

NEW YORK.—Trading at the opening of Wednesday's stock market indicated a continuance of recent operations by pools in selective issues, particularly steels, equipments and chemicals. Crucible lost a fraction at the outset, but immediately rallied 3 points. Barrett, one of yesterday's foremost favorites, extended its moderate initial gain to 5 points and General Chemical rose 7. Ralls especially the transcontinental groups were distinctly strong under lead of Northern Pacific and Union Pacific. Many early gains were substantially increased within the first half hour.

Pools experienced little difficulty in advancing their specialties during the morning. General Chemical made an extreme gain of almost nine points and Barrett rose 7 1/2. Harvester advanced 3 points, presumably on announcement of the stock dividend and steels and equipments almost as a whole improved their early position. Ralls assumed leadership between noon investments as well as junior issues rising 1 to 2 1/2 with pronounced activity among coalers. Call money opened at 7 per cent.

Today's stagnant session of the stock market was again characterized mainly by the operations of bull pools in special issues. Sales approximated $25,000,000 shares.

The closing was steady.

MUTT AND JEFF—AIN'T IT AWFUL TO ANTICIPATE SOMETHING TND THEN GET IT IN THE NECK?

Short Shavings

"Frances," said the little girl's mother, who was entertaining callers, "you come downstairs so noisily that you could be heard all over the house. Now go back and come downstairs like a lady."

After a few moments Frances re-entered the room. "Did you hear me come downstairs this time, mother?"

"No, dear; I am glad you came down quietly. Tell these ladies how you managed to come down like a lady the second time, when the first time you made such a noise."

"The second time I slid down the banisters," explained Frances.

George, three years of age, appeared on the Easter program at his Sunday school, singing a solo. As he was leaving the church with his mother, a friend said to him: "George, you did fine."

"I know it," he replied.

His mother, reproving him, said: "Why, George, you should not have said that to the lady." Whereupon George answered:

"Well, mother, I guess I could hear my own voice."

"Every," observed Bill "Awkins, "I fear as you got a job."

"Yes," answered the sad Enery, "I have got a job."

"You don't appear very happy about it, do you?" asked Bill. "Ah!" for foreman a decent cove, then!

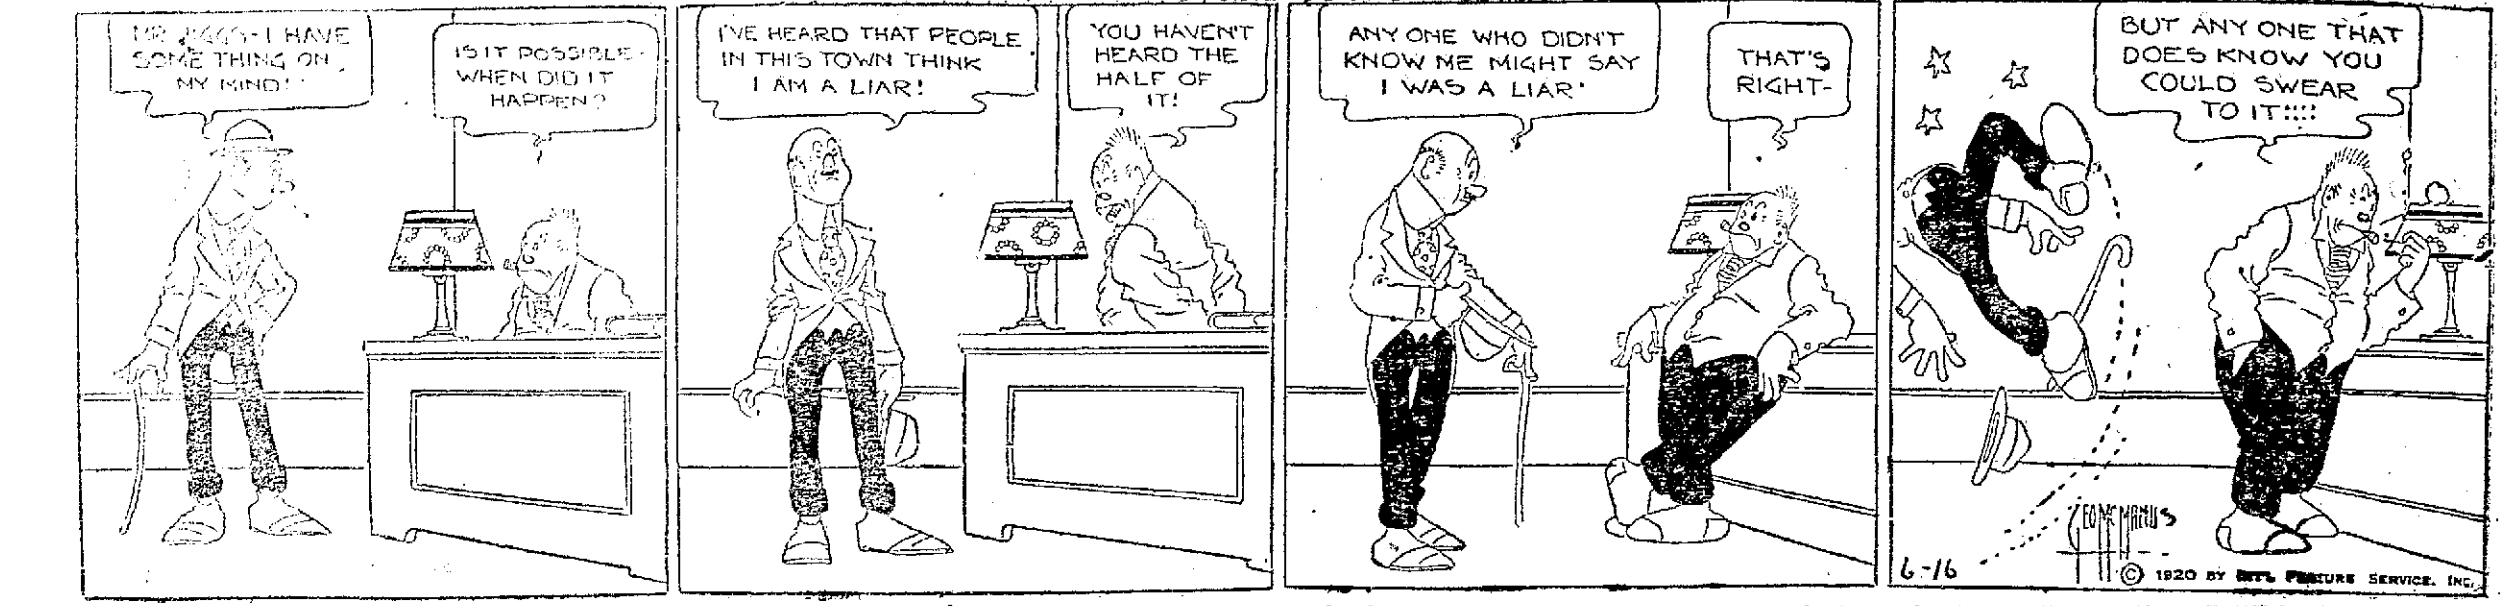

"Oh! It's a mean, low minded fellow!" cried the outraged "Every. "It's a dirty dork, to us. Got 'im like notions as 'ow gents like me should be treated. For instance, would yer believe it, he actually took the legs off the wheelbarrows so as a cove can't sit down an' rest? Oh, he's a mean dork!"—London Ideas.

BRINGING UP FATHER—

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single remnant and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and flaking of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

The Cake You Like the Best— —all Ready to Make

WHETHER it's chocolate layer, cocoa-nut, cup cakes, loaf cake, cookies or tarts, you can have it ready for the oven in a minute if you use Pat-a-cake. Just plain Pat-a-cake is delicious—but you can make any one of dozens of cakes with it.

PAT-A-CAKE

Pat-a-cake is a complete and perfect cake batter in flour form. It contains flour, sugar, eggs, milk, salt, baking powder, shortening and flavoring—just the same ingredients you use in mixing cake the old, tedious way—but Pat-a-cake is already mixed.

All you have to do is stir the contents of one package with three-fourths cup of water, place in oiled tins and bake.
